

2020 National Essay Challenge

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

To promote policy-relevant research by emerging scholars, Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) is running the 2020 National Essay Challenge for graduate students in Canadian universities.

Requirements:

- You must be a graduate student enrolled at a Canadian university for the 2019 to 2020 academic year.
- Your essay must be an empirical research paper, using qualitative or quantitative methodologies.
- The essay cannot be co-authored and you must have the support of a professor.

Selected students will receive

- an IRCC certificate of achievement
- an invitation to present their essay in Ottawa at an IRCC Research Matters event (with travel paid)
- a sum of $500 going toward participating in an academic conference

How do I enter?

- First, send an email to IRCC.NEC-CNE.IRCC@cic.gc.ca to access the 2020 National Essay Challenge group on GCcollab, where you will find information about the Challenge requirements.
- Once you are a member of the 2020 National Essay Challenge GCcollab group, you will need to submit your expression of interest by January 6, 2020.
- If you are planning to access Statistics Canada's Research Data Centres, you will need to have submitted your application by November 6, 2019.
